

Pender Real Estate Credit Fund ("the Fund") is a continuously offered closed-end interval fund registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, focused on private CRE debt. The Fund seeks to capitalize on market factors such as the reduction in lending options which, when coupled with increased borrower demand for short-term loans, has created a compelling investment opportunity for well-capitalized private lenders. The Fund is the successor fund to the Pender Capital Asset Based Lending Fund I, L.P. ("ABL I") ("Predecessor Fund").

P Key Features

- 1 SEEK TO GENERATE risk-adjusted current income.
- 2 SEEK to prioritize capital preservation primarily through credit investments secured by commercial real estate located in the United States.
- 3 STRATEGICALLY seek to originate short-term (12- to 36-month) bridge loans, secured by senior position collateral in transitional commercial real estate assets, primarily in the lower middle market. The Fund may also make mezzanine and preferred equity investments in such real estate assets.¹

The hypothetical example is for illustrative purposes only and does not represent the returns of any particular investment or individual time period shown.

P Performance Attribution Highlights for March:

Our March performance update for the I1 Shares of the Pender Real Estate Credit Fund (PNDRX) reflects a net return of +0.55% for the month, compared to the Bloomberg Aggregate Bond Index (Index) which returned -1.76% for the same period. The Fund performance remains strong, posting a cumulative return of +25.54% net for the I1 share class since inception (April 24, 2023), compared to the Index return of +11.55% during the same timeframe. The private CRE Debt market remains steady, bolstered by dislocated bank lending options, attractive yield levels, and borrower demand for alternative financing solutions.

In March, performance was consistent with previous months, while AUM continued to trend UPWARD. The Fund seeks to deploy new capital into loans which may provide opportunities to BOOST Fund performance.

P RISK FACTORS

An investment in Pender Real Estate Credit Fund CLASS I1 - PNDRX (the “Fund”) is subject to various risks. Investors should carefully consider the Fund’s investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses before investing. Before investing, carefully read the prospectus, which can be obtained by visiting www.pendercapitalfunds.com/#fundDocument or by calling 310.853.8001 or email at IR@pendercapital.com. An investment in the Fund is subject to a high degree of risk.

Some of the risks include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Shares are an illiquid investment.
- You may lose all of your investment.
- The Fund is a newly formed business entity with a limited history of operations and limited assets. The Fund is subject to the risks involved with any speculative new venture. No assurance can be given that the Fund will be profitable.
- Pender Capital does not intend to list the Fund’s shares (“shares”) on any securities exchange and does not expect a secondary market in the shares to develop.
- Investors should generally not expect to be able to sell their shares (other than through the limited repurchase process), regardless of how the Fund performs.
- Although the Fund is required to implement a share repurchase program, only a limited number of shares will be eligible for repurchase.
- You should consider that you may not have access to the money you invest for an indefinite period of time.
- An investment in the shares is not suitable for you if you have a foreseeable need to access the money you invest.
- Because you will be unable to sell your shares or have them repurchased immediately, you will find it difficult to reduce your exposure on a timely basis during a market downturn.
- Pandemic Risk. COVID-19 has caused volatility, severe market dislocations and liquidity constraints in many markets, including securities the Fund holds and may adversely affect the Fund’s investments and operations.
- The Fund is a non-diversified management investment company and may be more susceptible to any single economic or regulatory occurrence than a diversified investment company. Cybersecurity risks have significantly increased in recent years and the Fund could suffer such losses in the future. One of the fundamental risks associated with the Fund’s investments is the risk that an issuer will be unable to make principal and interest payments on its outstanding debt obligations when due. Other risk factors include interest rate risk (a rise in interest rates causes a decline in the value of debt securities) and prepayment risk (the debtor may pay its obligation early, reducing the amount of interest payments).

PRIOR PERFORMANCE DISCLOSURE:

From 8/3/2015 to 4/21/2023 the previous Fund was managed as a private fund (Pender Capital Asset Based Lending Fund I, L.P.) (the “Predecessor Fund”) and was managed by Pender Capital Management, then acting as the Investment Adviser. On 4/21/2023, the Predecessor Fund contributed its investment portfolio to the new registered Pender Real Estate Credit Fund (PNDRX) and assumed the Predecessor Fund’s portfolio as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”). The personnel of Pender Capital Management, LLC that had made investment decisions for the Predecessor Fund began making investment decisions for PNDRX. The Fund is currently being managed using investment policies, objectives, guidelines and restrictions that are in all material respects substantially the same as those used by the Predecessor Fund. Factors that could affect performance differences between the Fund, and the Predecessor Fund include, but are not limited to, differences in cash flows, fees, expenses, performance calculation methods, portfolio size, number of underlying pooled investments, all of which, if applicable, could have a negative impact on the Fund’s performance. Prospective investors should not assume that an investment in this Fund will generate returns comparable to the returns generated by the Prior Funds.

4. PNDRX - Class I1 Aggregate $5M from an RIA.
5. The Investment Manager has contractually agreed to waive fees or to assume expenses of the Fund if required to ensure the Total Annual Expenses (excluding certain interest, commissions, fees, expenses, and taxes as detailed in the prospectus) do not exceed 2.75% of the average daily net assets of I1 Class Shares. This agreement will remain in effect until May 1, 2026 and will automatically renew for consecutive one-year terms thereafter. Please see prospectus for details on these and other fees or expenses the investor may be subject to by investing in the Fund.
6. The Annualized Distribution Rate is calculated by adding the Fund’s trailing 12-month net investment income divided by net assets. To the extent these distributions exceed net investment income, they will be classified as return of capital. The final determination of the source and tax characteristics of all distributions will be made after the end of the year.
